

POLICY

Policy Type: Library Services      Policy Number: 03-05
Policy Title: Volunteer Policy

Purpose: To provide guidelines for the volunteer program at St. Thomas Public Library

Introduction: Volunteer assignments at St. Thomas Public Library balance the needs of the library with the interests and abilities of our volunteers, and comply with the principles of the Collective Agreement. Volunteer duties are intended to enhance Library services, and not replace the work of a bargaining unit member. Every effort will be made to match volunteer ability to the opportunity available. However, the Library's overall mandate must always take precedence and opportunities for volunteer involvement may be limited.

Guidelines: Opportunities for volunteer placements are identified by, and must be approved by, library management. Tasks performed by volunteers must be mutually agreed upon by Library Management and CUPE Local 841.2.

Volunteers perform their duties in the presence of at least one paid staff member. Each volunteer will be supervised by the Manager, Programming and Community Development, (or designate ), who will be responsible for day-to-day support and direction.

Prior to being assigned to a volunteer position, all volunteers will be interviewed to ascertain their suitability for the position, as well as their ability to understand the requirements of the position. The library reserves the right to show due diligence in determining the appropriateness of an assignment for any volunteer.

Police Record Checks (Vulnerable Sector Checks) will be required for volunteers who work with vulnerable clients – this includes children, youth and seniors. The volunteer is responsible for paying the fee associated with a Police Record Check. Volunteers who do not agree to the background check may be refused placement.

Minimum age requirement for volunteers is 14 years old. Specific requirements of some volunteer positions may impose other age restrictions.

Volunteer Position Descriptions:

Volunteers are given:

- clear, complete, and current descriptions of the duties and responsibilities of the volunteer position
- Notice of any training requirements
- A clear description of the time commitment needed for the assignment
- The name of the staff member who will provide functional guidance as they perform their volunteer duties

The volunteer position descriptions are reviewed with the volunteer prior to beginning the assignment.

Tasks that may be performed by Volunteers:

Volunteer tasks may include but are not limited to:

- Shelf reading and shelving
- Delivery of materials to shut-ins
- Delivery of materials to nursing homes and seniors residences
- Special projects
- Teen Advisory Board participation
- Preparation for children's programs (crafts), and program assistance
- Administrative functions including folding, preparing mail-outs, etc.
- Other tasks which may be mutually agreed to by Library management and CUPE Local 841.2 from time to time

Volunteers will not perform any task or duty for which a license or certification is required if the volunteer does not possess such license or certification.

All volunteers operate under the supervision of the Manager, Programming and Community Development, with functional guidance being provided by other staff members in the department where the volunteer performs their duties. Any questions, health and safety concerns, and reports of sickness or inability to work assigned volunteer shifts should be directed to the Manager, Programming and Community Development.

Responsibilities of Volunteers:

Volunteers are expected to respect library policies, participate in training, and be at their work location at the agreed-upon time or notify the Manager, Programming and Community Development in advance. Volunteers who do not adhere to the policies and procedures of the Library or who fail to satisfactorily meet the expectations of the volunteer assignment are subject to dismissal.

Volunteers are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all proprietary or privileged information which they may be exposed to while serving as a volunteer. This includes respecting the privacy of all staff and customers. Failure to maintain confidentiality may result in immediate termination of the volunteer, and/or other corrective action.

Volunteers must be covered by their own vehicle insurance where their voluntary activity involves the use of a vehicle, and are liable for their own parking tickets and/or fines related to driving offences. Volunteers are advised to inform their insurance company of their volunteer driving activity to ensure adequate insurance protection.

As representatives of the Library, volunteers are responsible for presenting a good image in the community. Volunteers shall dress appropriately for the conditions and performance of their duties. Wherever possible, volunteers will wear their volunteer identification while engaged in Library business.

Orientation and
On-going training:

Volunteers are required to complete training mandated by legislation. Additional library training may be made available to volunteers , if relevant to their volunteer assignment.

Protection of

All personal information is collected for internal purposes only. All information is collected under the authority of the Public Libraries Act 1984. Volunteer records will be kept in a secure location until the volunteer is no longer active. Files will be destroyed in a responsible manner.

Volunteer Recognition:

The St. Thomas Public Library Board and staff are indebted to the many contributions made by our volunteers. The Board appreciates the generosity involved in the giving of time and monetary gifts. In particular, the ongoing efforts of the “Friends of the Library” are an invaluable supplement to the general operation of the St. Thomas Public Library. To show our appreciation of their efforts, the library may host a recognition event for volunteers.

Board members and staff are encouraged to give personal acknowledgment and encouragement to volunteers when appropriate. However, no tokens, gifts, or compensation of any kind will be given to volunteers in return for their service. Our volunteers give of their time, talent, and energy for the betterment of the Library and do not require or expect reimbursement.

The St. Thomas Public Library Board, City Council and the community of St. Thomas hold in high regard those members of the community who volunteer to make our Library a welcoming and valued service.
